A Very Special Remnant Day.

A CLEARANCE of our winter stocks. This sale is comprehensive. It means odds and ends, short lengths, broken sizes and assortments, small lots—the "remnants" of Women's and Girl's Winter Wraps, Dresses, Separate Skirts, Waists; Men's Suits and Overcoats, Boys' and Youths' Suits, Overcoats, and Reefers; Men's, Women's, and Children's Underwear; Dress Goods, black and colored; Lace Curtains, Portieres, Heavy Draperies, Rugs. It means winter goods and garments—and all of this season's production—at clearance prices. It also includes articles for daily use about the house, some perfect, some scratched, chipped, or otherwise defaced.

The whole store brings forward its special offerings of worthy goods at little prices, affording the economically inclined splendid opportunities to supply personal needs and to brighten and make the home more comfortable at very little expenditure of money.

IN THE SOCIAL WORLD

Tafts Have Family Dinner in White House.

SOCIETY GATHERS ON STANDS

Master Brooke Lee Entertains Large Party in Front of Old Mansion. Marriage Announced of Miss Elizabeth Schell Reed to Mr. George C. Billard—Many Visitors Here.

The President and Mrs. Taft had a family dinner party in the White House last evening. Miss Helen Taft and her brothers, Robert A. and Charles, joined them at the White House after the parade. Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Taft and their daughter Louise are established in the Archibald Hopkins home, on Dupont Circle, for several weeks. Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Taft and their daughter, also Louise, are at the Willard Hotel, and the President's aged aunt, Miss Della C. Torrey, of Millbury, Mass., who is a guest at the Boardman house, will remain there for a day or two longer. Mrs. Philip Taft, wife of a cousin of the President, is with friends at the Portland.

Mr. Oden Horstman bought one of the stands in the Court of Honor complete, for which he is reported to have paid $2,000. The seats he held and sold to his friends at nominal figures, which made a gathering of the smartest society people in Washington. Those on this stand made up an almost complete roster of the social register of Washington.

The most distinguished juvenile party of the day watching the parade was that of Master Brooke Lee, the small son of Mr. Blair Lee, whose father had erected in front of the old Blair Mansion in Pennsylvania avenue, just above the White House and opposite the Navy Department, a special stand, upon which Master Lee entertained a large party of his friends. These were the belles and beaux of some years hence.

Senator and Mrs. Heyburn entertained a small company at dinner last evening in their apartment in Stoneleigh Court.

Gen. and Mrs. Clarence R. Edwards entertained at a large luncheon yesterday in their Lafayette Square home, the guests going on to a private stand in the Court of Honor to view the parade.

Commander and Mrs. Irwin entertained a company yesterday in a private room in Pennsylvania avenue, where they had luncheon and spent the afternoon, comfortably viewing the parade.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth gave a large dinner last night in their home in Dupont circle, after which they and their guests went to the inaugural ball.

Mrs. Daniel S. Lamont and her daughter have sailed for Europe to spend the spring season in Rome, and will not return to this country until June 1.

Representative and Mrs. George Washington Cook, of Denver, are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kessler, also of Denver.

Mrs. Edward L. White, of Englewood, N. J., who was formerly Miss Ellen Bradford Poe, has returned to Washington and is staying with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Poe, at the Toronto.

Mrs. Albert Clifford Barney will be at home to-day for the last time until after Lent.

The marriage is announced of Miss Elizabeth Schell Reed, daughter of Mrs. Gertrude L. Reed, to Mr. George Cooper Billard. The ceremony was performed in St. Margaret's Church by Rev. Herbert Scott Smith at 9:30 o'clock on Wednesday, March 3, before a company of the immediate relatives and closest friends of the bride and bridegroom. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. Charles C. McBride, of Elizabeth, N. J., and the best man was Dr. Charles L. Billard, brother of the bridegroom.

The bride wore a traveling gown of tan-colored broadcloth, with large black hat. After the ceremony a small reception was held in the home of the bride's mother in Oregon avenue. The bride and bridegroom left after the reception for a wedding trip, and will be at home after April 2 at 1208 S street.

Mrs. William Ridgwood, of Mobile, Ala., is the guest of Mrs. Nat C. Dean at the Cecil. She came on for the inauguration, and was much entertained by a host of friends.

Miss McCorkle, of Virginia, and Miss Holliday, of Maryland, are guests of Mrs. Beacock at the Wilton for the week.

Mr. Edward M. Nixon, of Providence, R. I., is the guest of his mother, Mrs. Mary A. Nixon, at the Olympia.

Mr. Charles C. Curtis, of St. Louis, Mo., is the guest of his sister, Mrs. Eastwood, of Ontario road.

Mrs. J. Ellen Foster and Miss E. F. Pierce, with their house guests, Mr. George A. Pierce and Miss Alice Pope, of Boston, and Mrs. Frank B. Church and Mrs. Edward W. Hatch, and Miss Hatch, will be at home to their friends to-day from 3 to 6, at the Portner.

Miss Barbara Fowle Campbell, daughter of Senator William Campbell, of Jefferson, has been selected as maid of honor to the Sons of Confederate Veterans of West Virginia at the reunion to be held in Memphis, Tenn., in June next.

Miss Alice M. Bassett, a popular belle, and Mr. Harold D. Fitzgerald, a prominent business man, both of Danville, Va., were married Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hunnicutt, 647 A street northeast. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles L. Neil, pastor of the Eastern Presbyterian Church. The bride wore a gray traveling gown with hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. After a short bridal trip they will be at home in Danville, Va.

FLAGS TRAIN FOR WEDDING.

Wyoming Preacher Takes Novel Method to Obtain Witnesses. Fort Fetterman, Wyo., Mar. 4.—Rather than postpone a wedding ceremony he had been called upon to perform, the Rev. Mr. Daniels flagged a freight train, pressed the train crew into service as witnesses, and proceeded with the ceremony.

Charles Page and Mrs. Louise Conwell had called him to marry them, but there were no witnesses. Hearing a train whistling, the three hurried to a little flag station. Mr. Daniels stopped the train and explained the dilemma to the astonished crew.

Then, with the bride standing on the steps of the caboose, the blushing bridegroom on the ground, and the conductor and brakemen paying strict attention, the ceremony was performed.

DIPLOMATS AT INAUGURATION.

MILLION A MONTH HIS PROFIT.

Edwin Hawley Known in Wall Street as a "Ticket Wizard."

New York, Mar. 4.—A million dollars a month is the profit that Edwin Hawley, the new "hero" of the railroad world, made in a Wall street deal. A million dollars a month, and he kept up the pace for twelve months.

The year 1908 will go down in history as a hard-time year, but not for Edwin Hawley. Some time ago he became interested in the Colorado and Southern, which at that time was a poor, struggling property.

A year ago he controlled it. In December, 1907, the stock sold around $17 per share. It had just been learned that the latter part of December, 1908, Hawley disposed of his control of the road with a profit to himself of thirty-eight points, or $12,000,000.

And now Hawley has used the proceeds of the Colorado and Southern deal to purchase control of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, a system nearly 2,000 miles long and stretching from Newport News to Cincinnati.

Hawley is fifty-nine years of age, and has spent almost his entire life in Wall street. His friends call him a "ticket wizard."

A mathematical wag has made up some figures in an attempt to show to the unsophisticated just how big Hawley's year profits were. He says that if the $12,000,000 were all in silver-dollar cartwheels they would weigh 80,375 pounds.

The wag would have the big pile divided up into 150-pound lots. There would be 536 lots in all. He would lead each 150-pound lot into a wheelbarrow. How many wheelbarrows would be required?

Only 5,570! Now, if men pushed these wheelbarrows in single file and were careful to walk eight feet apart, there would be a procession of silver-bearing wheelbarrows eight miles and 2120 feet long.

A deeper problem than the wheelbarrow wag's is: How long will be required for a man to earn $12,000,000 if he spends his previous time, like the wag, figuring out wheelbarrow puzzles?

"Beating" Way; Loses Legs. Grand Rapids, Mich., Mar. 4.—James Holbrook was run over by an Ann Arbor train while beating his way and had both legs cut off, one below and the other above the knee.

CAN'T GET BACK TAXES.

Supreme Court Decision Involves $1,200,000 Credits of Estate. Springfield, Ill., Mar. 4.—Pension Commissioner Vespasian Warner, of Clinton, won an important suit in the Supreme Court, which made perpetual an injunction restraining the tax assessor of De Witt County from listing for back taxes some $1,200,000 of the credits of his father, John Warner, of whose estate he is in charge.

Mr. Warner got a temporary injunction from the Circuit Court of De Witt County, and the Supreme Court upholds that decision.
